

20 YEARS LATER

The FW de Klerk Foundation has produced a 104- page book to mark the 20th anniversary of the commencement of South Africa's transformation to non-racial constitutional democracy.

The lavishly illustrated A4 format book provides a comprehensive overview of *the developments that led to FW de Klerk's speech of 2 February 1990; *the CODESA negotiations; *the 1992 referendum; *Boipatong; *Bisho and *the Record of Understanding; *the Nobel Peace Prize; *the assassination of Chris Hani; *the 1994 election; *the rise and fall of the Government of National Unity; *The demise of the National Party; *The Mbeki presidency; *Polokwane; and *the inauguration of President Zuma.

The story is told with extracts from key speeches by FW de Klerk, Nelson Mandela,

President Mbeki and President Zuma - as well as commentaries by the FW de Klerk Foundation. The book then deals frankly with South Africa's many SUCCESSSES during the past 20 years; with the enormous PROBLEMS including AIDS, education and poverty that continue to confront us ; an assessment of how OUR INSTITUTIONS have fared - and prospects for THE FUTURE.
